

B Natural Pianos
Contemporary Music Ensemble
Spring Semester 2019
March through June (13 weeks)

The Contemporary Music Ensemble will study and perform the music of a variety of genres from popular artists old and current. In the class, students will participate in weekly, supervised rehearsals while learning the traits, responsibilities and artistry of being in a band. The ensemble will work initially with an effective curriculum and music charts provided by the instructor. Then, the students can have a chance to submit their own choices of songs to be learned. There will be focused discussions on the history of the artist in study and the stylistic approach required to execute the song. Students will learn to read music charts, play in tune, listen to their fellow band mates and give, and receive constructive criticism. Students are required to practice several times throughout the week and have the music rehearsed to the best of their ability before each practice. The ensemble will perform a thirty-minute concert at the end of the semester.

Semester Tuition: $195.00

"That's one of the great things about music. You can sing a song to 85,000 people and they'll sing it back for 85,000 different reasons." -Dave Grohl
